FOREWORD

"KNOWLEDGE does not comprise all which is contained in the large term of education. The feelings are to be disciplined; the passions are to be restrained; true and worthy motives are to be inspired; a profound religious feeling is to be instilled, and pure morality inculcated under all circumstances. All this is comprised in education."

Tribute

ALTHOUGH America is deep in the flood waters of war, and sacrifice and suffering are imminent, the Class of 1943, in spite of many handicaps, has seen fit to continue the tradition established by previous classes—publish "Magic Casements". It is fitting and proper that the members of the Class of 1943 think in terms of democracy and the struggle to preserve it, and the necessary blood, sweat, and tears before the struggle is finally concluded.

From every city, village, and hamlet in the country, our youth has been called to the colors. Every school in our country has made some contribution to our great cause. Therefore, with a humble feeling of pride and a mind and heart ever-alert to the tremendous sacrifices of these men who are in our armed forces, we, the members of the Class of 1943, dedicate "Magic Casements" to all our members of the faculty, our graduates, and underclassmen who proudly wear the uniform of any of the armed services of the United States.

"MANY earnest persons, who have found direct education for themselves fruitless and unprofitable, declare that they first began to learn when they began to teach, and that in the education of others they discovered the secret of their own."

Board of Education

I TAKE this opportunity to extend my congratulations to the members of the graduating class of 1943 and to the members of the staff who have helped to make this event a reality. Although you are being graduated at a time when America is deep in a fearful world conflict, I am happy in the thought that the training you have received in high school will give you an opportunity to assist our country capably and efficiently.

Principal's Message

THE CLASS of 1943 graduates at a time when the challenge of world conflict is flung directly across its path. I do not recall any group of boys and girls graduated from high school in the last quarter of a century who have had to face a condition similar to the one which exists now. The boys in the class will soon be in some branch of military service. The girls in the class will soon be in some work which directly or indirectly contributes to our total war effort. Everything you do will be directed toward the successful conclusion of this horrible nightmare.

The members of the staff, during the course of your four years in school, have dug deeply into their knowledge and experience in order to prepare you better for this struggle. They attempted to train you physically and mentally for the task which is before you.

This, however, is not sufficient. Vital to your very existence is your realization and understanding of two fundamental concepts; first, that you gear yourselves to the war effort. Discard your thinking of last year and think in terms of 1943. In this world of rapid changes, one day, one month, or one year can easily out-mode the best strategy and the best planning. Keep yourself properly tuned to these rapid and necessary changes. Secondly, understand clearly that you are fighting to preserve everything that is fine and desirable in our great democracy. Understand the implications of the four freedoms; freedom of speech and expression, freedom of worship, freedom from want, and freedom from fear. The first two are cultural, the latter environmental. If you will understand these two concepts and train your energies toward their acceptance, then you will make a splendid contribution to our total war effort.

I close your formal high school education with fear and trepidation in my heart for you because of the turbulency of the times; and yet, I have an unshakeable faith and confidence in your ability to cope successfully with all the problems which lie before you.

"I HAVE reared a memorial more enduring than brass, and loftier than the regal structure of the pyramids, which neither the corroding shower nor the powerless north wind can destroy; no, not even unending years nor the flight of time itself. Senior Ball

THE brightest coin in our treasure chest of memory was the Senior Ball. Its original unusual circus theme added brilliant color and festivity to the affair. The glamorous senior girls blended with these colors in their stunning gowns and wraps. All the boys will remember the difference in their appearance. Those who attended will recall the sparkling rhythm of the Duke Collins orchestra and the throbbing swish of the dancer's clothes. This last event in every senior's life was brought about by the following hard-working committees:

Senior Play

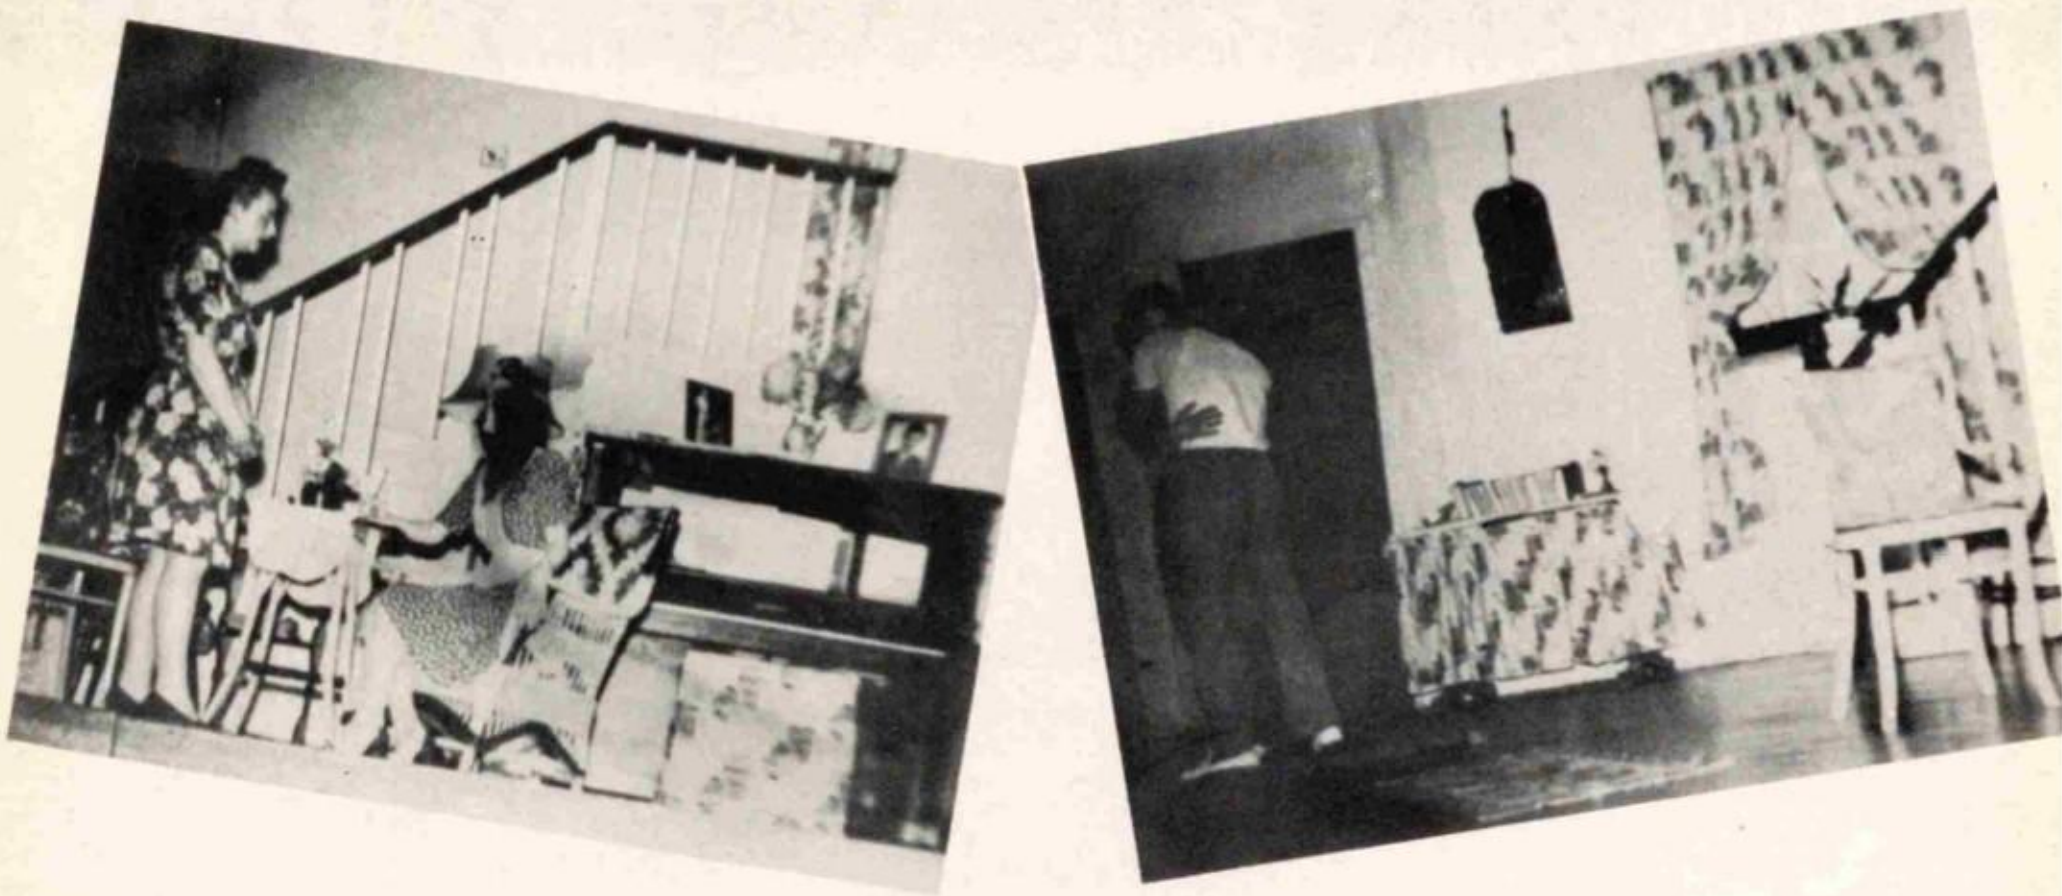

Three Act Comedy Presented By Seniors

ON Friday evening, February 26th, the curtains rose on the annual play given by "we", the Seniors. The sparkling comedy "June Mad", coached by the patient Mrs. Belkin, revealed once more that the Seniors can act—all things being equal.

"June Mad" is a dramatization of several days of a girl's life, at the time when she passes from childhood into womanhood. Dorothy Svec portrayed the part of "Penny Wood", the fifteen year-old daughter of Dr. Wood (John Oddo) and Mrs. Wood (Claire Macko). Mervin Roberts (Julius La Rosa), Penny's young uncle, is an intensely serious fellow. He returns from college with his friend, Roger Van Vleck (Vincent Hillman), who is the school "wolf", and they both make a "play" for Julie Harris (Marilyn Rugar). Penny thinks she is in love with Roger, while Chuck Harris (Sal Del Vecchio), who had a clear track with Penny before Roger arrived on the scene, turns to his glider for consolation. Most of the comedy is furnished by Effie, the maid (Dot Cheply), and Elmer, the handy man (Paul Russo). Milly Lou, the thirteen year-old brat who thinks Mervin is wonderful, was played by Cecilia Zimmel. Tom Aulito portrayed Mr. Harris, and Bernie Nicolosi and Ruth Mokray played Ralph and Shirley Wentworth.

"We", the Seniors, congratulate the cast and Mrs. Belkin for making this performance another successful and outstanding event.

CLASS WILL

WE, THE Seniors of 1943 of Lodi High School, being of sound mind, memory, and understanding, compose and publish this, our last will and testament in the following manner:

To Mr. Galanti we leave our treasured memories of the four years we spent under his superb guidance.

To Miss Huber we bequeath our sincerest appreciation of the splendid work she did in helping us compile our treasure chest.

To Mr. Grohman we leave our unending gratitude for his tolerance in the management of this year book.

To the members of the faculty we leave millions of thanks for their never ending patience.

We leave Tommy Aulito's headaches of managing the Senior class to the future Senior class President of 1944.

To the Junior class we leave the contagious disease, Senioritis.

To Sophie Lasica and Grace Scilla we leave fond memories of Ben Appio and Al Beilschmidt.

We leave to the Freshmen, Gene Dziob's technique of asking for chewing gum.

We leave Sal Del Vecchio's corny jokes to Bob Roosen.

Dot Kristof leaves her dimples to Rudy Nydigger.

We will Dot Cheply's flirting ability to Minnie Arlotta.

To Henry Jaeger we leave Hudson Carpenter's pastime wolfing.

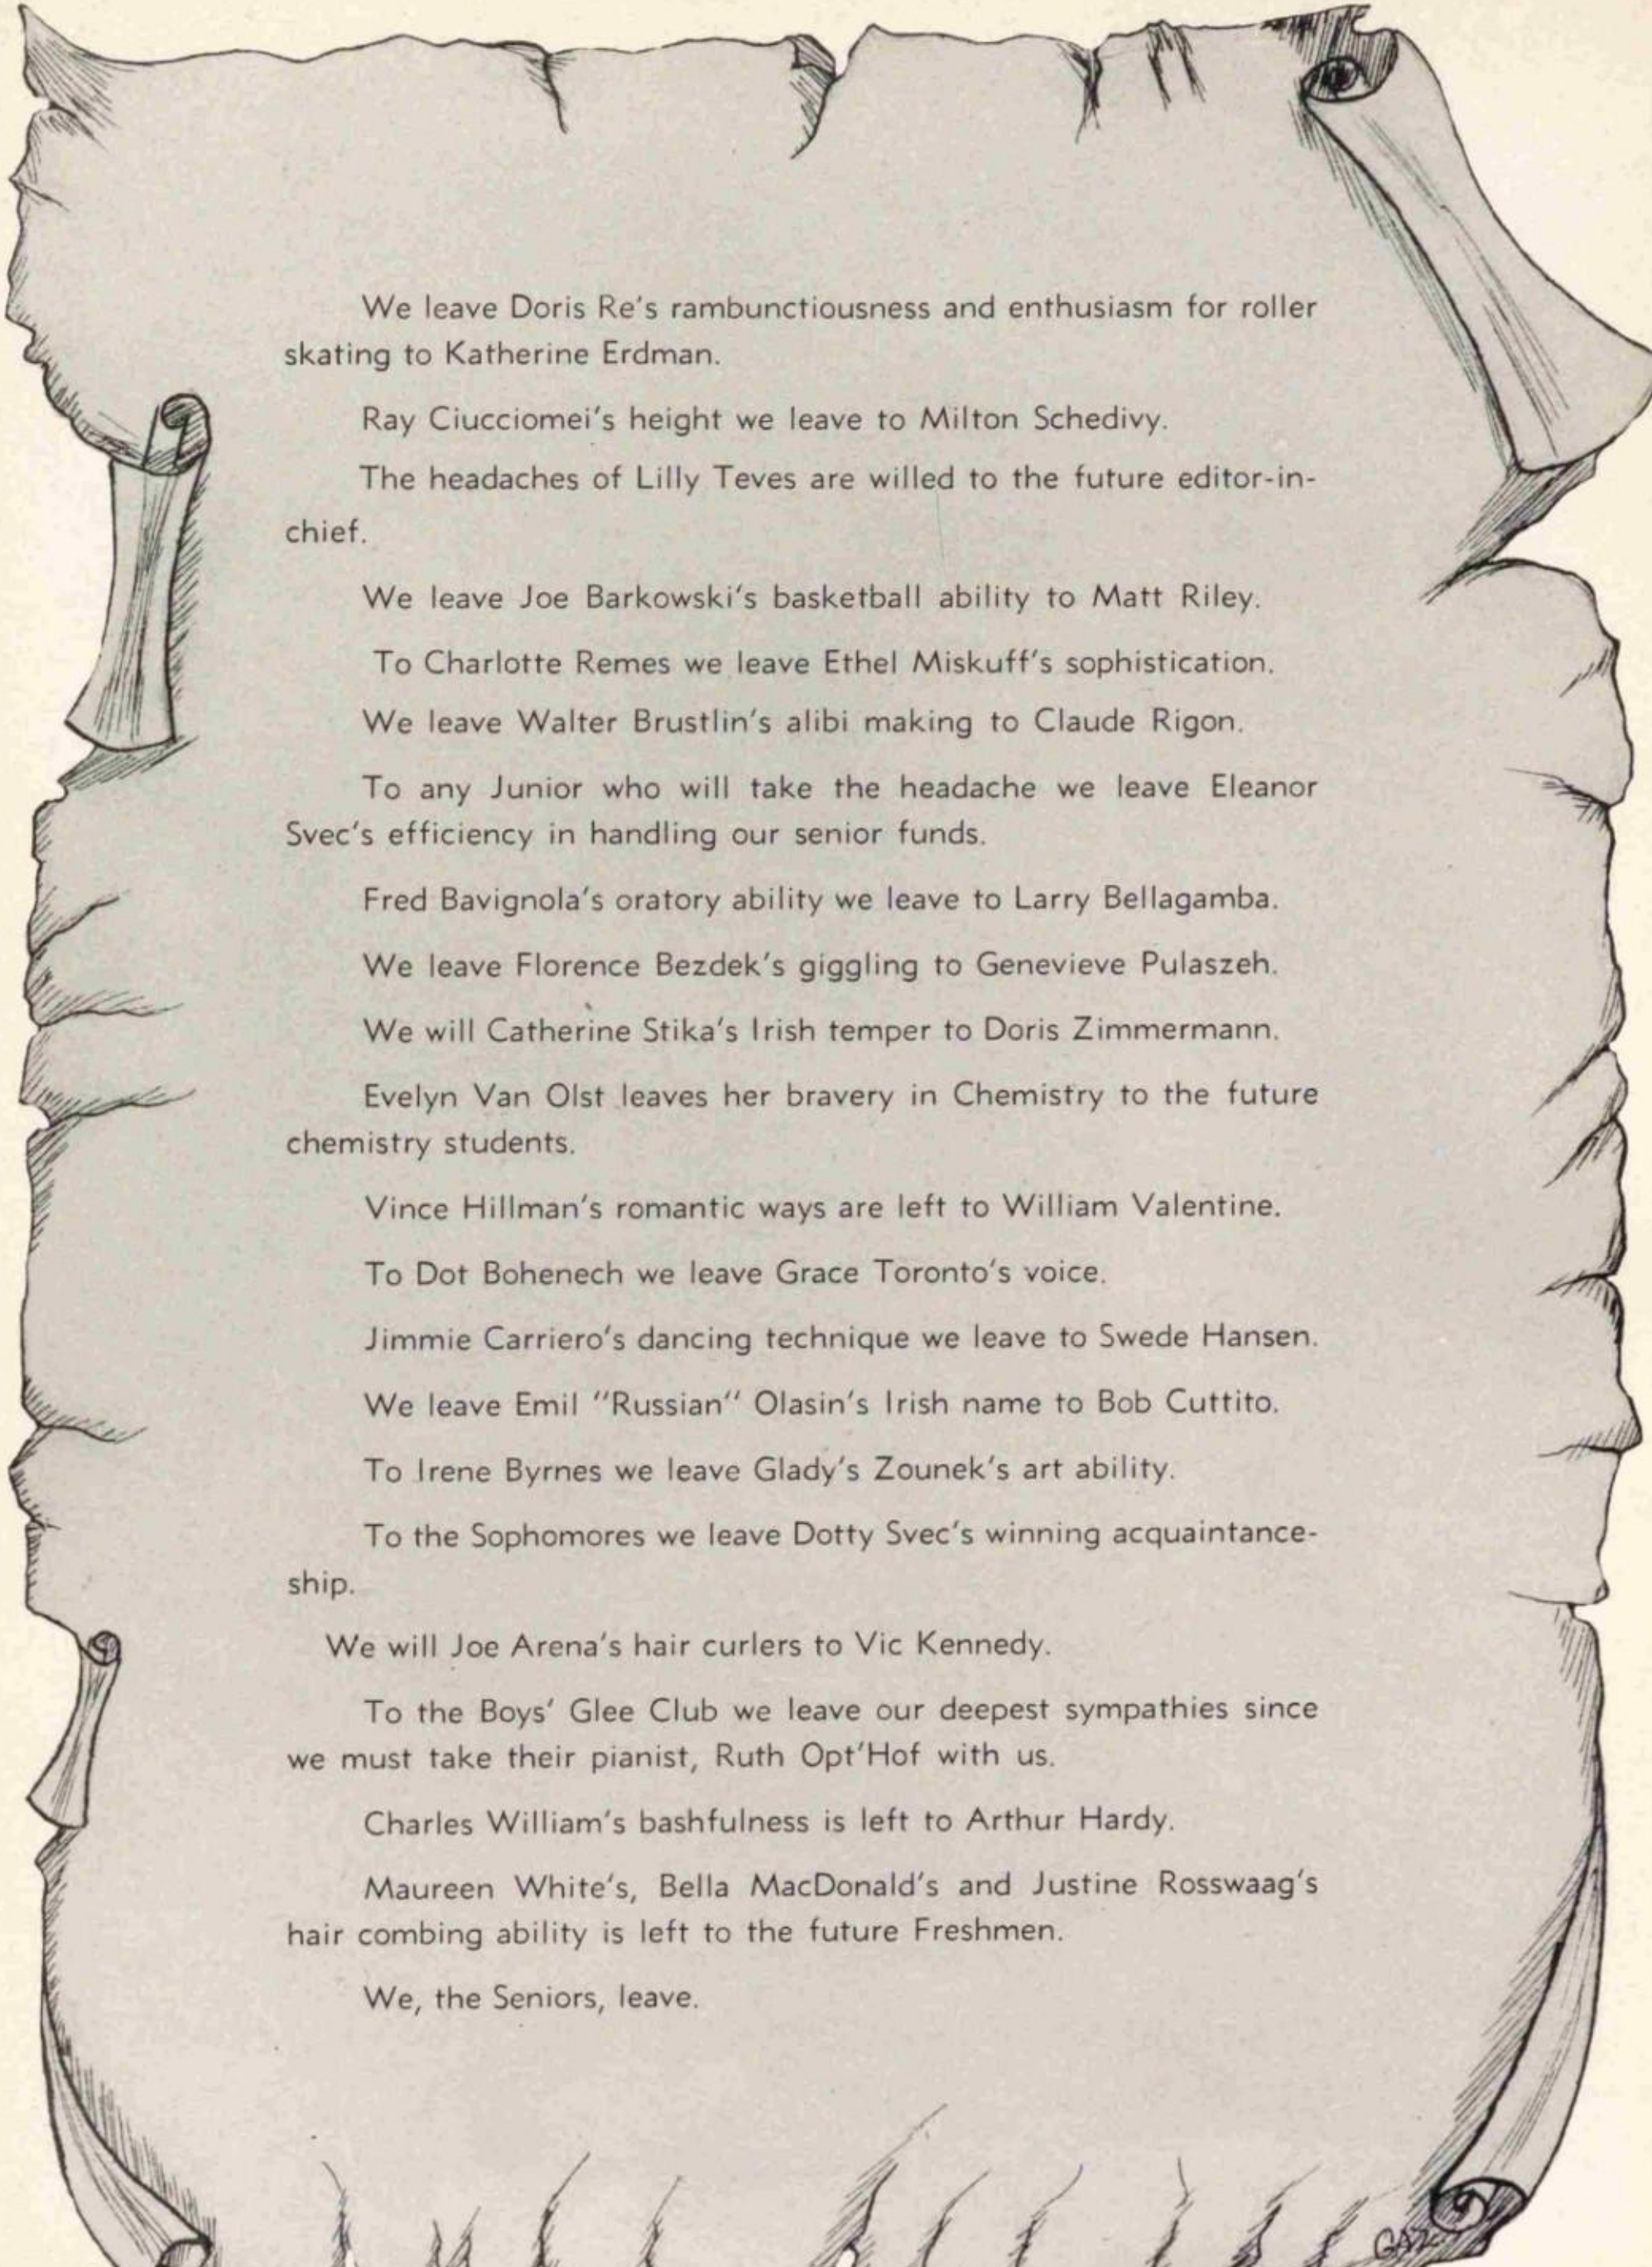

To "Red" Patire we leave Angelina Santangelo's shyness.

We regret that we cannot leave Helga Klemschowski here for Bill Johnson.

Warren Steenland leaves Miss Koebel peace and quiet during choir rehearsals.

We leave Virginia McCleerey's freckles to Ann Burke.

We leave Julius La Rosa's Latin ability to "Zep" Klemschowski.

We leave Doris Re's rambunctiousness and enthusiasm for roller skating to Katherine Erdman.

Ray Ciucciomei's height we leave to Milton Schedivy.

The headaches of Lilly Teves are willed to the future editor-in-chief.

We leave Joe Barkowski's basketball ability to Matt Riley.

To Charlotte Remes we leave Ethel Miskuff's sophistication.

We leave Walter Brustlin's alibi making to Claude Rigon.

To any Junior who will take the headache we leave Eleanor Svec's efficiency in handling our senior funds.

Fred Bavignola's oratory ability we leave to Larry Bellagamba.

We leave Florence Bezdek's giggling to Genevieve Pulaszeh.

We will Catherine Stika's Irish temper to Doris Zimmermann.

Evelyn Van Olst leaves her bravery in Chemistry to the future chemistry students.

To Dot Bohenech we leave Grace Toronto's voice.

Jimmie Carriero's dancing technique we leave to Swede Hansen.

We leave Emil "Russian" Olatin's Irish name to Bob Cuttito.

To Irene Byrnes we leave Gladys Zounek's art ability.

To the Sophomores we leave Dotty Svec's winning acquaintance-ship.

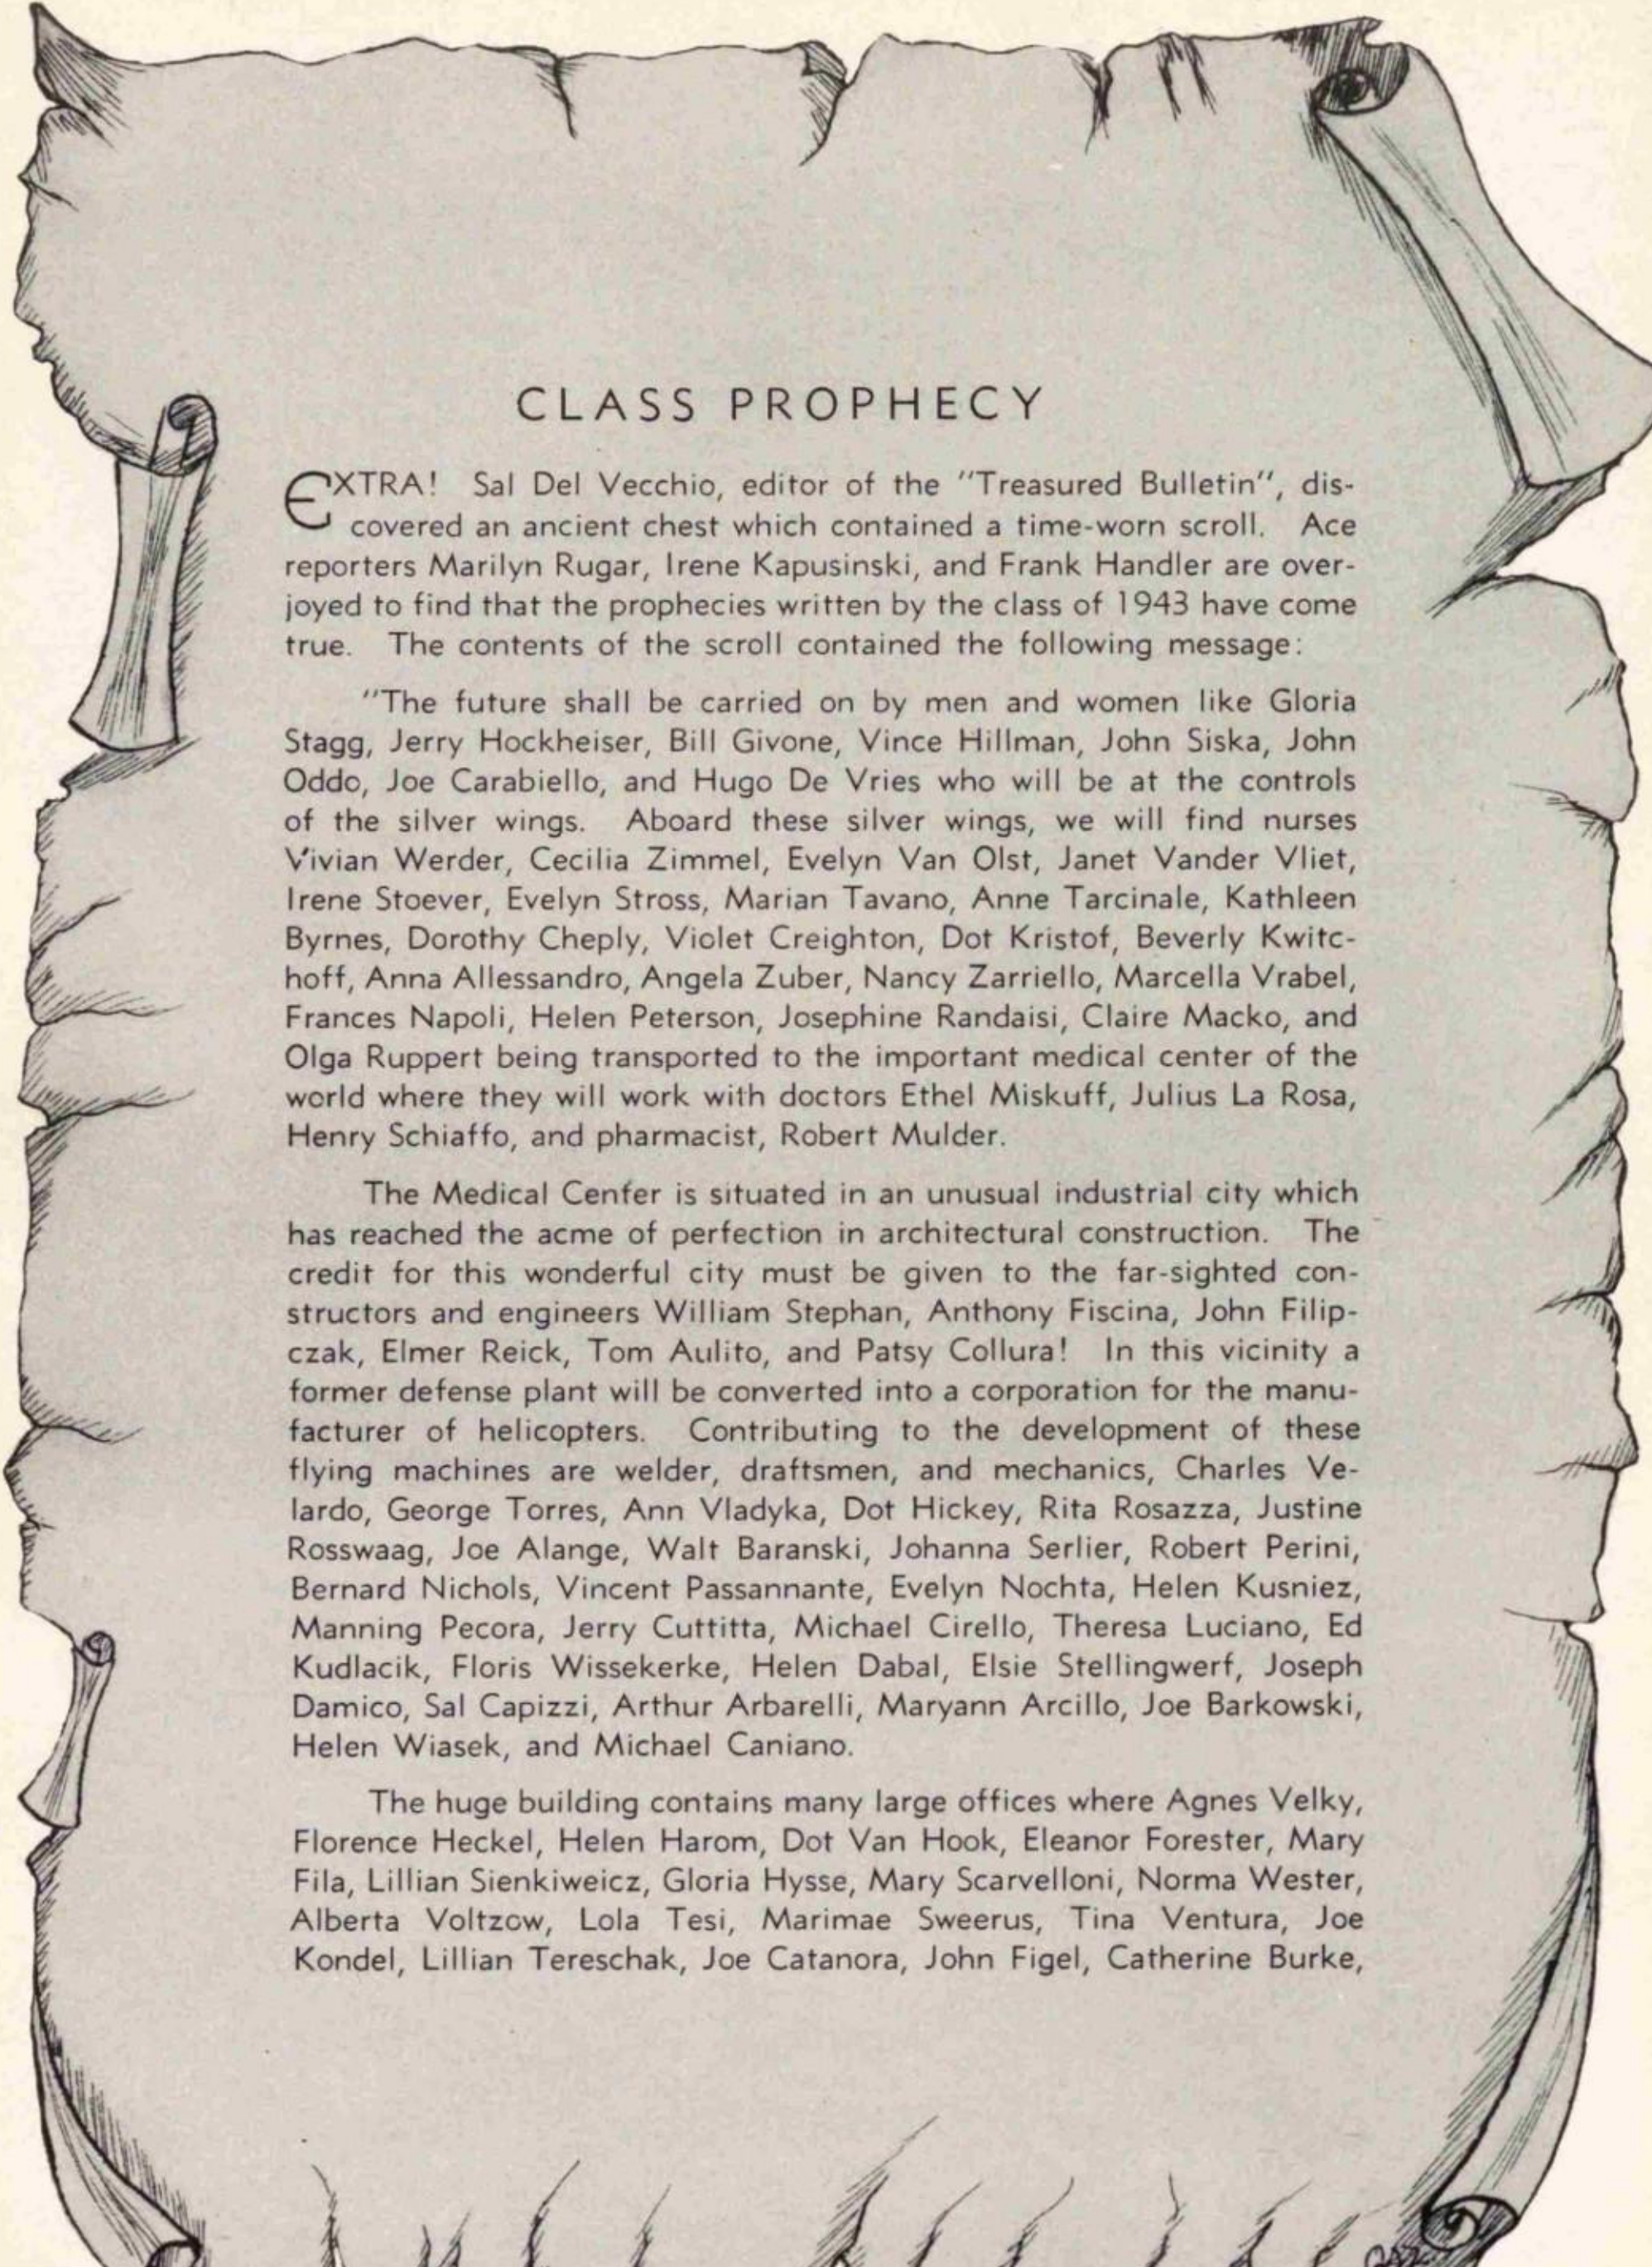

We will Joe Arena's hair curlers to Vic Kennedy.

To the Boys' Glee Club we leave our deepest sympathies since we must take their pianist, Ruth Opt'Hof with us.

Charles William's bashfulness is left to Arthur Hardy.

Maureen White's, Bella MacDonald's and Justine Rosswaag's hair combing ability is left to the future Freshmen.

We, the Seniors, leave.

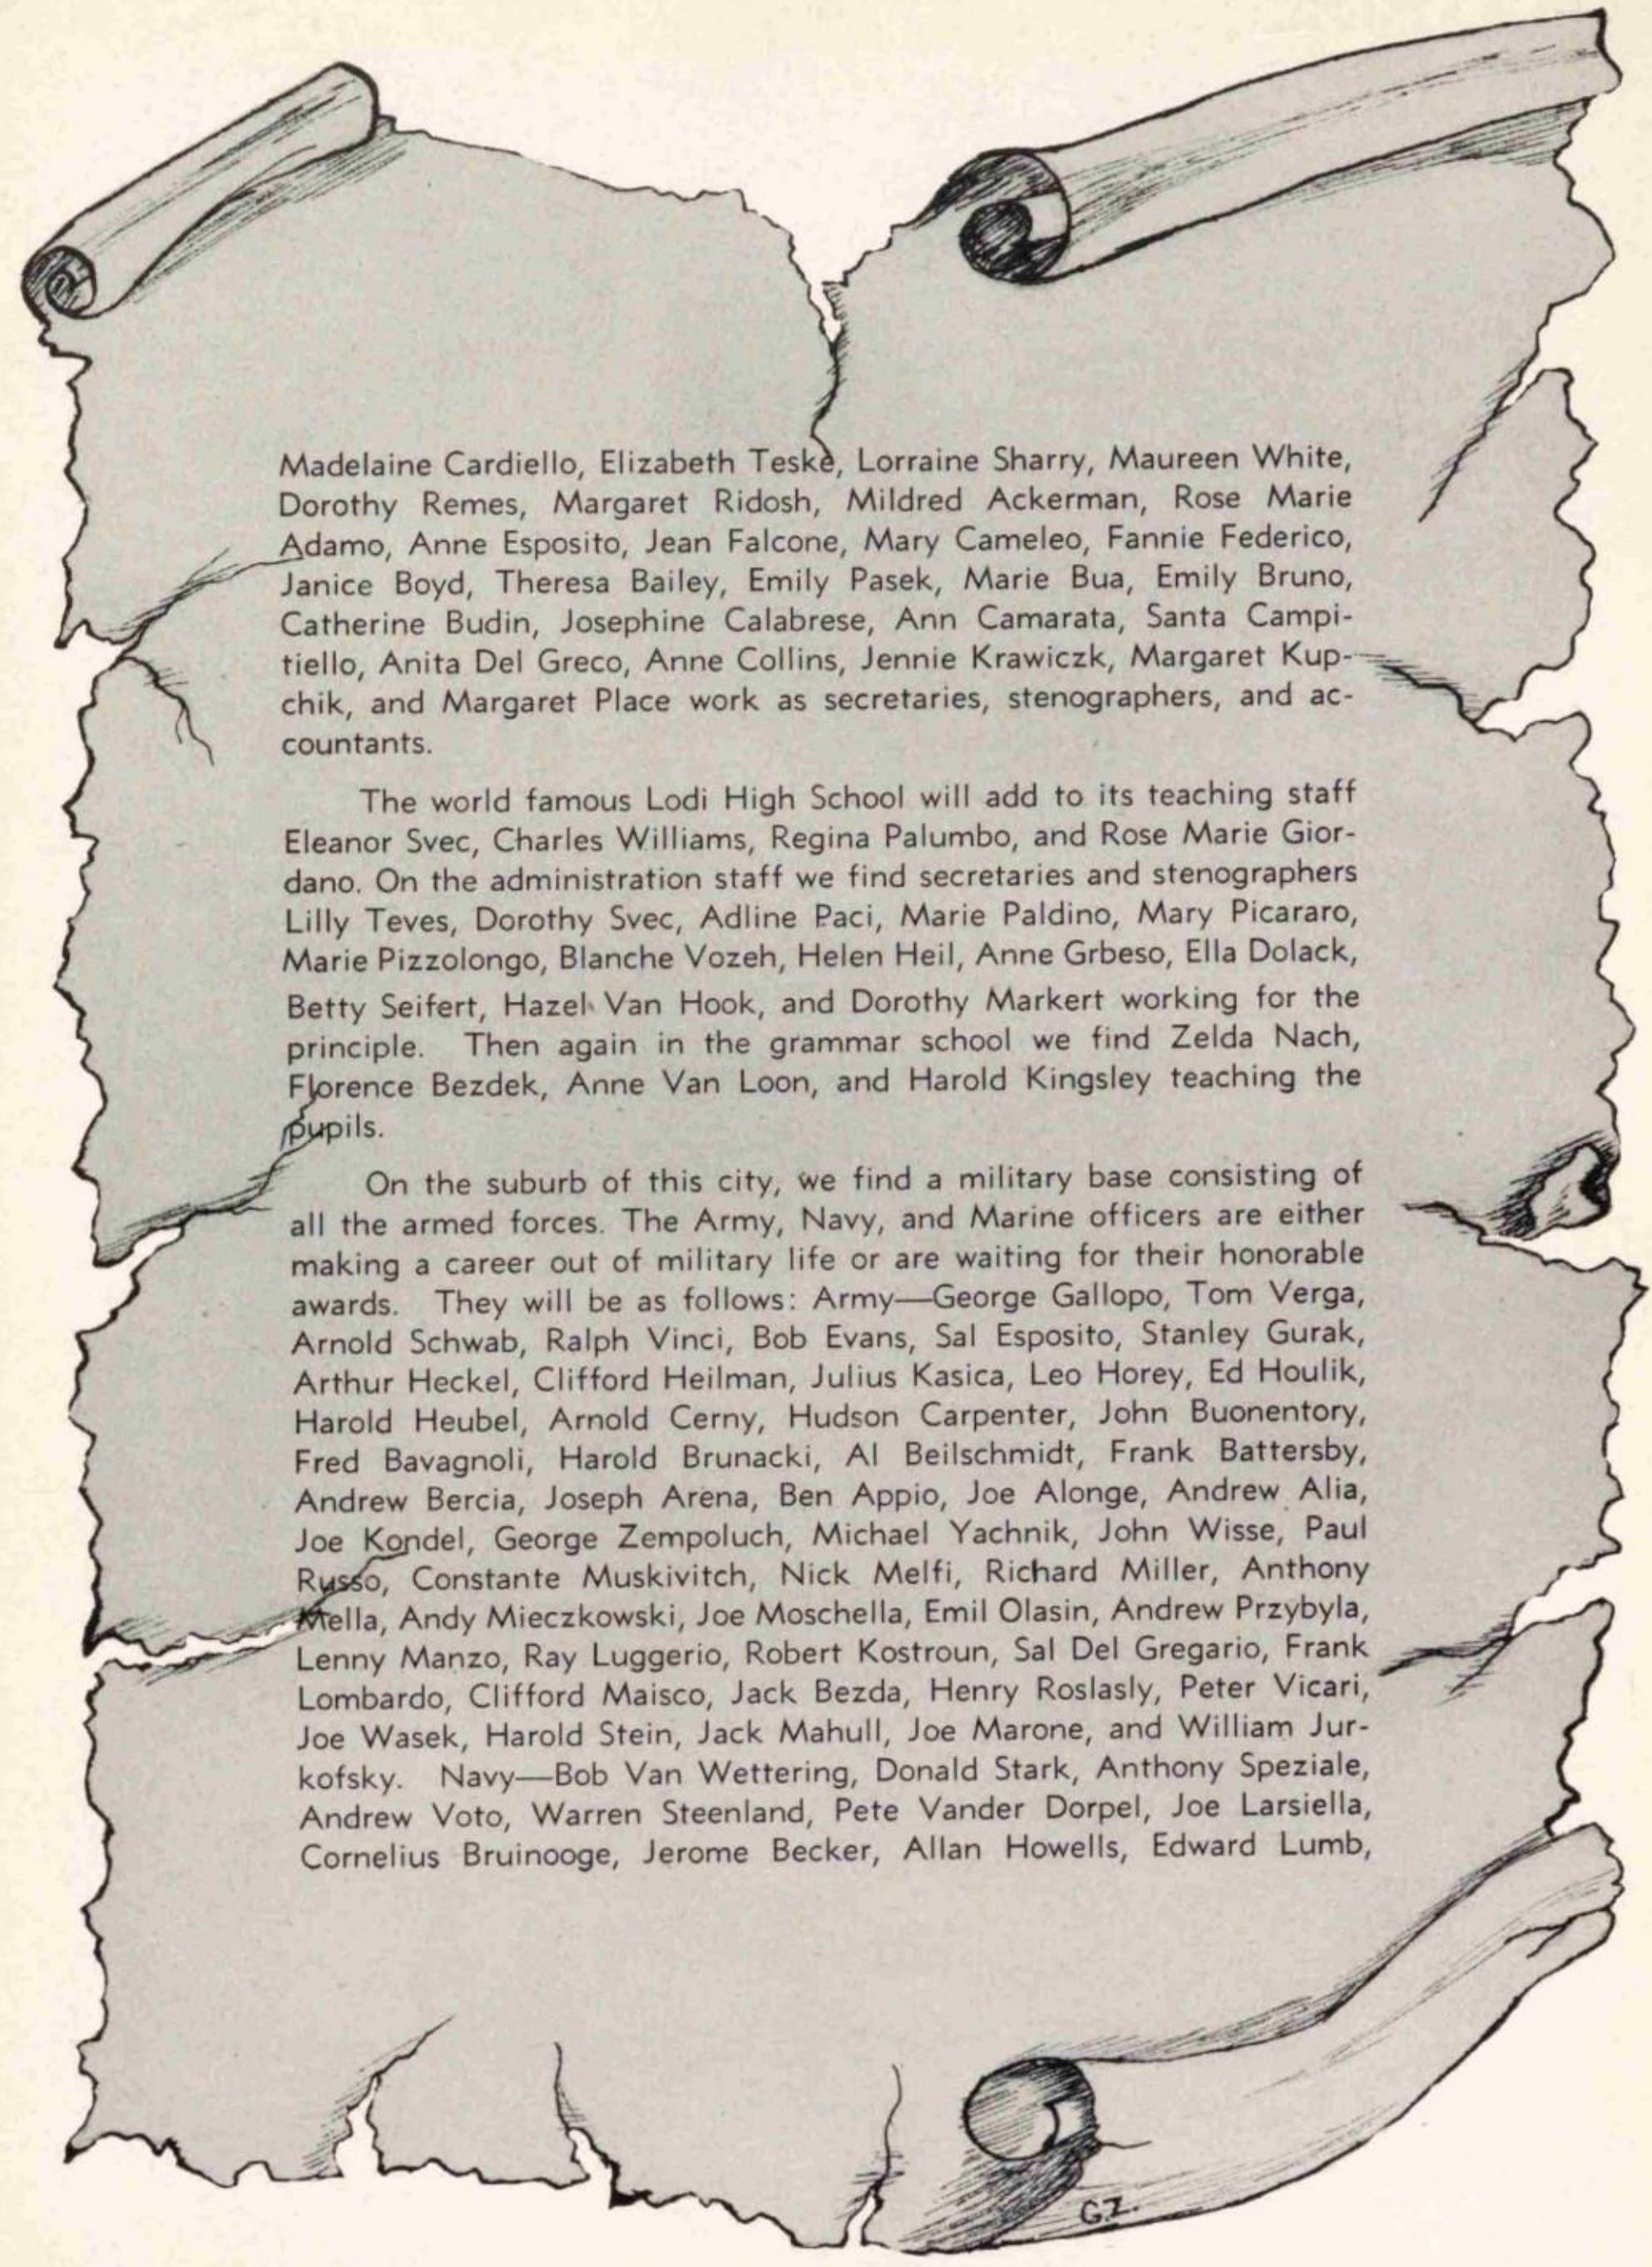

CLASS PROPHECY

EXTRA! Sal Del Vecchio, editor of the "Treasured Bulletin", discovered an ancient chest which contained a time-worn scroll. Ace reporters Marilyn Rugar, Irene Kapusinski, and Frank Handler are overjoyed to find that the prophecies written by the class of 1943 have come true. The contents of the scroll contained the following message:

"The future shall be carried on by men and women like Gloria Stagg, Jerry Hockheiser, Bill Givone, Vince Hillman, John Siska, John Oddo, Joe Carabiello, and Hugo De Vries who will be at the controls of the silver wings. Aboard these silver wings, we will find nurses Vivian Werder, Cecilia Zimmel, Evelyn Van Olst, Janet Vander Vliet, Irene Stoever, Evelyn Stross, Marian Tavano, Anne Tarcinale, Kathleen Byrnes, Dorothy Cheply, Violet Creighton, Dot Kristof, Beverly Kwitchoff, Anna Alessandro, Angela Zuber, Nancy Zarriello, Marcella Vrabel, Frances Napoli, Helen Peterson, Josephine Randaisi, Claire Macko, and Olga Ruppert being transported to the important medical center of the world where they will work with doctors Ethel Miskuff, Julius La Rosa, Henry Schiaffo, and pharmacist, Robert Mulder.

The Medical Center is situated in an unusual industrial city which has reached the acme of perfection in architectural construction. The credit for this wonderful city must be given to the far-sighted constructors and engineers William Stephan, Anthony Fiscina, John Filipczak, Elmer Reick, Tom Aulito, and Patsy Collura! In this vicinity a former defense plant will be converted into a corporation for the manufacturer of helicopters. Contributing to the development of these flying machines are welder, draftsmen, and mechanics, Charles Velardo, George Torres, Ann Vladyka, Dot Hickey, Rita Rosazza, Justine Rosswaag, Joe Alange, Walt Baranski, Johanna Serlier, Robert Perini, Bernard Nichols, Vincent Passannante, Evelyn Nohta, Helen Kusniez, Manning Pecora, Jerry Cuttitta, Michael Cirello, Theresa Luciano, Ed Kudlacik, Floris Wissekerke, Helen Dabal, Elsie Stellingwerf, Joseph Damico, Sal Capizzi, Arthur Arbarelli, Maryann Arcillo, Joe Barkowski, Helen Wiasek, and Michael Caniano.

The huge building contains many large offices where Agnes Velky, Florence Heckel, Helen Harom, Dot Van Hook, Eleanor Forester, Mary Fila, Lillian Sienkiweicz, Gloria Hysse, Mary Scarvelloni, Norma Wester, Alberta Voltzow, Lola Tesi, Marimae Sweerus, Tina Ventura, Joe Kondel, Lillian Tereschak, Joe Catanora, John Figel, Catherine Burke, Madelaine Cardiello, Elizabeth Teske, Lorraine Sharry, Maureen White, Dorothy Remes, Margaret Ridosh, Mildred Ackerman, Rose Marie Adamo, Anne Esposito, Jean Falcone, Mary Cameleo, Fannie Federico, Janice Boyd, Theresa Bailey, Emily Pasek, Marie Bua, Emily Bruno, Catherine Budin, Josephine Calabrese, Ann Camarata, Santa Campitiello, Anita Del Greco, Anne Collins, Jennie Krawicz, Margaret Kupchik, and Margaret Place work as secretaries, stenographers, and accountants.

The world famous Lodi High School will add to its teaching staff Eleanor Svec, Charles Williams, Regina Palumbo, and Rose Marie Giordano. On the administration staff we find secretaries and stenographers Lilly Teves, Dorothy Svec, Adline Paci, Marie Paldino, Mary Picararo, Marie Pizzolongo, Blanche Vozeh, Helen Heil, Anne Grbeso, Ella Dolack, Betty Seifert, Hazel Van Hook, and Dorothy Markert working for the principle. Then again in the grammar school we find Zelda Nach, Florence Bezdek, Anne Van Loon, and Harold Kingsley teaching the pupils.

On the suburb of this city, we find a military base consisting of all the armed forces. The Army, Navy, and Marine officers are either making a career out of military life or are waiting for their honorable awards. They will be as follows: Army—George Gallopo, Tom Verga, Arnold Schwab, Ralph Vinci, Bob Evans, Sal Esposito, Stanley Gurak, Arthur Heckel, Clifford Heilman, Julius Kasica, Leo Horey, Ed Houlik, Harold Heubel, Arnold Cerny, Hudson Carpenter, John Buonentory, Fred Bavagnoli, Harold Brunacki, Al Beilschmidt, Frank Battersby, Andrew Bercia, Joseph Arena, Ben Appio, Joe Alonge, Andrew Alia, Joe Kondel, George Zempoluch, Michael Yachnik, John Wisse, Paul Russo, Constante Muskivitch, Nick Melfi, Richard Miller, Anthony Mella, Andy Mieczkowski, Joe Moschella, Emil Olasin, Andrew Przybyla, Lenny Manzo, Ray Luggerio, Robert Kostroun, Sal Del Gregario, Frank Lombardo, Clifford Maisco, Jack Bezda, Henry Roslasly, Peter Vicari, Joe Wasek, Harold Stein, Jack Mahull, Joe Marone, and William Jurkofsky. Navy—Bob Van Wettering, Donald Stark, Anthony Speziale, Andrew Voto, Warren Steenland, Pete Vander Dorpel, Joe Larsiella, Cornelius Bruinooge, Jerome Becker, Allan Howells, Edward Lumb,

Alex Gunza, Stanley Grush, Bernard Guarino, Joseph Guerriero, and Charles Brustlin. Marines—Al Rembish, and John De Block. Of course, there will be Army Nurse Helga Klemschowski, and Navy Nurse Catherine Stika.

Working for their degrees in the stately university will be William Garcica, Henry Duvier, Robert Bredder, Harold Reith, Ed Wyszowski, Edwin Wood, Vincent Wilhelm, and Anthony Macaluso.

Above one of the exquisite hotels there will be an "Orange and Blue Room" where such frequent patrons as Dorothy Zipko, traveler, and Helene Pawlowska, dietion, will be serenaded by Grace Toronto, Marilyn Wooley, Gerard Opt'Hof and James Carriero, and will dance to the rippling rythm of Frank Averso and Walter Niclaus.

The priceless murals on the walls, done by Gladys Zounek and John Carloni will add to the beautiful scenery. The costumes of the performers which will be designed by June Schnebelen and Carol Luna blend with the unique background. The sketches of the costumes are wonderfully reproduced by the seamstresses Helen Kozler, Jean De Palma, and Stella Nocito, Jacqueline Wouwenberg, and Helen Bolcarovica.

Visiting the "Orange and Blue Room" we will find Gene Dziob modeling the latest creation on the important fashion firm of Ray Cuicciomei. The splendid array of clothes will be selected by his buyer, Josephine Piechota. Also working for the firm as bookkeepers, stenographers, and secretaries will be Irene Chyla, Gloria Kwitchoff, Bernadette Mandio, Anna Yaskot, Evelyn Wodraska, Angelina Santangelo, Virginia McCleerey, Mary Spada, Lillian Stephan, Doris White, Rose Wagenti, Emily Rzasa, Doris Re, Mary Raia, Norma Perini, Nancy Occhiuto, Clem Nicaus, Ruth Mokray, Helen Mattfeld, Jennie De Maria, Josephine Acurio, Anne Monocchio, Al Belluardo, Norma Meyer, Anthony Mobilio, Thelma Olsen, Agnes Onufer, Ruth Opt'Hof, Helen Palsi, Mary Romano, Fanny Partvka, Felecia Daniels, Jane Kuren, Marie Dianuzzo, and Marie Sainthill. At the switchboard will be Doris Stark, head operator; Christine Garafalo, Marie Granata, and Margaret Guarosi.

To end, we hope that peace, prosperity, and all our prophecies will come to be.

CLASS OF 1943

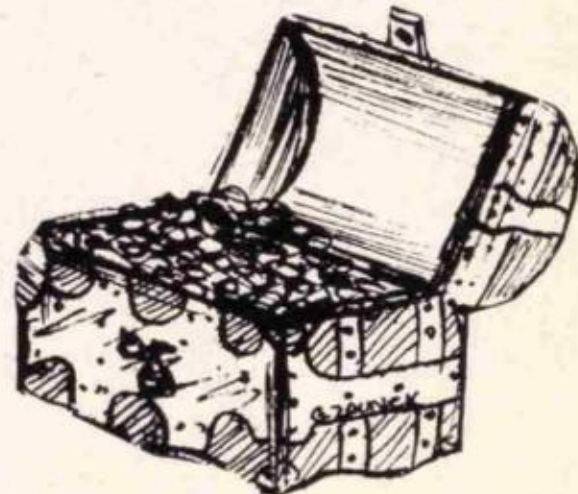

ALMA MATER

Near the old-de river we were On a late-ry hill
From thy walls we'll go inspired by the quaking soil

Stands our noble Alma Mater Braced in glory still O'er whose head thy halls so stately ever love thy name.

Higher praise never ceasing As we're al-ways done
That we honor Alma Mater Honor offer son.

And to thee dear Alma Mater
And to thee dear Alma Mater
And to thee dear Alma Mater

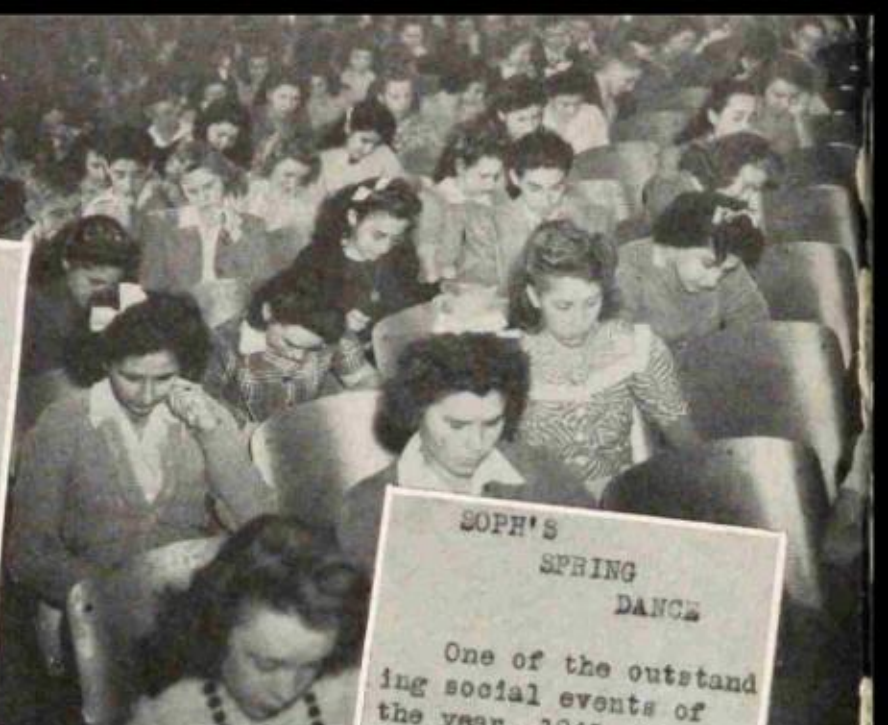

TEACHERS BECOME ACTORS

One of our funniest memories will be that of our teachers laying aside their books and pencils to become some of the greatest actors we have ever seen.

Remember the first play "On the Bridge at Midnight". A side splitting mellow drama, the play includes a manly hero and a beautiful heroine. Everything was there, the stolen mortgage and the wonderful hero outwitting the terrible villian for the hand of the beautiful heroine.

The next year they presented "What a Life" with "Hen-ree!" "Henry Aldrich!" and "Coming Mother" ringing through the auditorium. It was such a success that we wondered if our teachers were coming back to us, or if they were going to accept Hollywood contracts.

SOPH'S SPRING DANCE

One of the outstanding social events of the year, 1941, was our Soph Spring Dance which took place in the gym on Friday evening, March 21, at eight o'clock.

Dancing to the strains of the Waddon Hall Orchestra, entertainment and refreshments were enjoyed by all. Decorations were carried out in the present day theme of true Americanism- red, white, and blue.

We had as our guest the sophmores of Hasbrouck Heights. Remember?

GLAMOUR BOYS

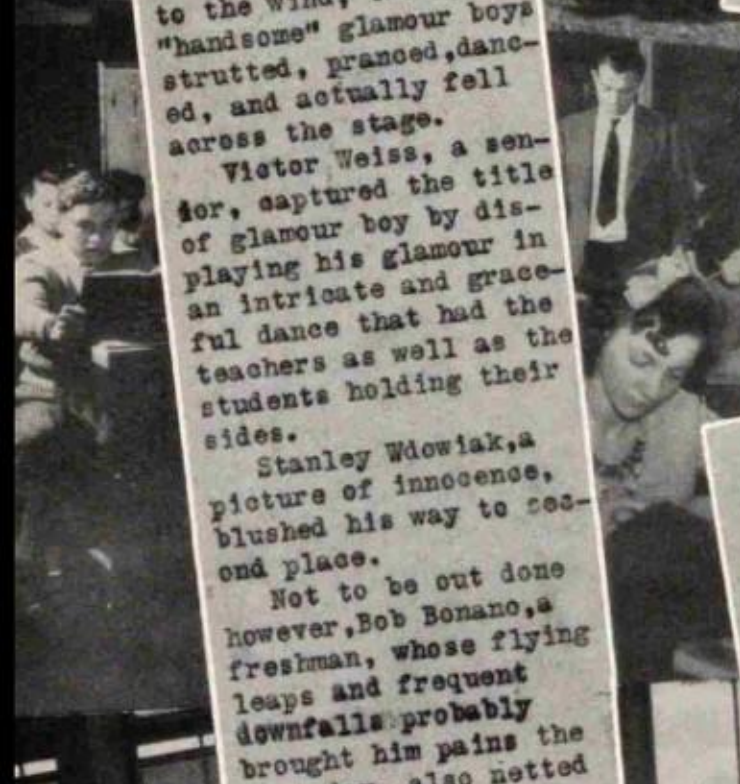

Will we ever forget the glamour boy contest we had.

Flinging all dignity to the wind, twenty "handsome" glamour boys strutted, pranced, danced, and actually fell across the stage.

Victor Weiss, a senior, captured the title of glamour boy by displaying his glamour in an intricate and graceful dance that had the teachers as well as the students holding their sides.

Stanley Wdowiak, a picture of innocence, blushed his way to second place.

Not to be out done however, Bob Bonano, a freshman, whose flying leaps and frequent downfalls probably brought him pains the next day, also netted him third prize.

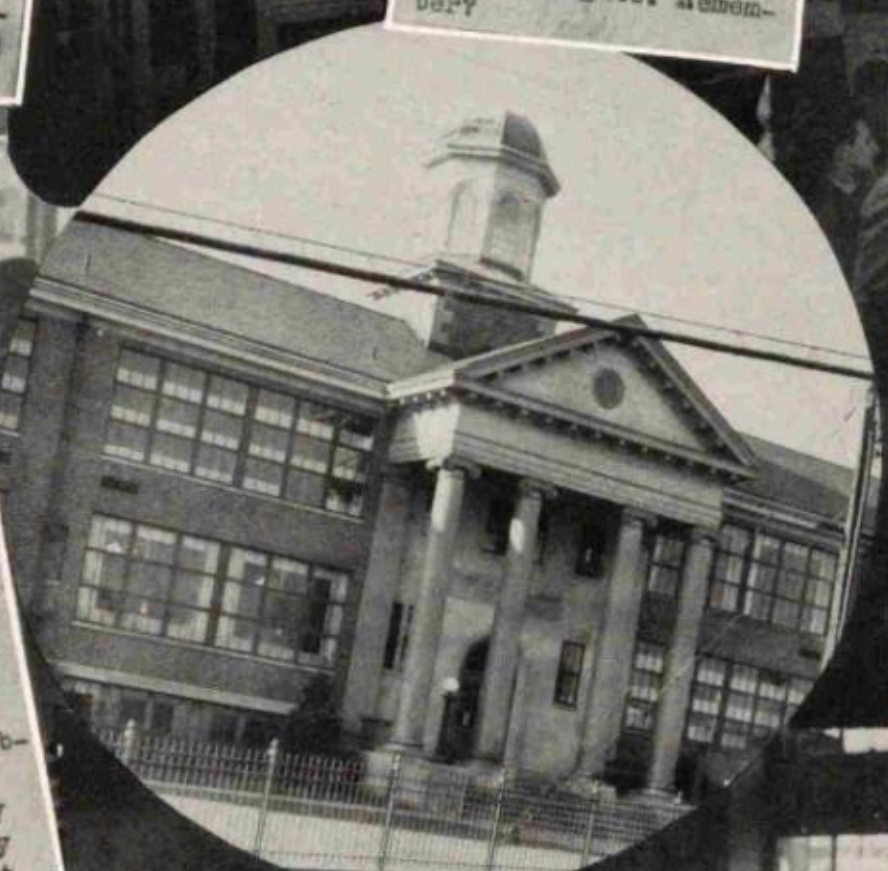

JUNE MAD

One of our funniest memories will inevitably be our Senior Play, June Mad, a comedy in three acts which was held in our auditorium Friday, February 26, 1943.

It was the story of a teen-aged dreamy girl who tries to act very grown-up when her brother brings home a wealthy friend. This of course left her original boyfriend out in the cold. It was a very successful and hilarious performance we will never forget.

By the way, will we ever forget the gown Penny wore?

PINK PROMENADE

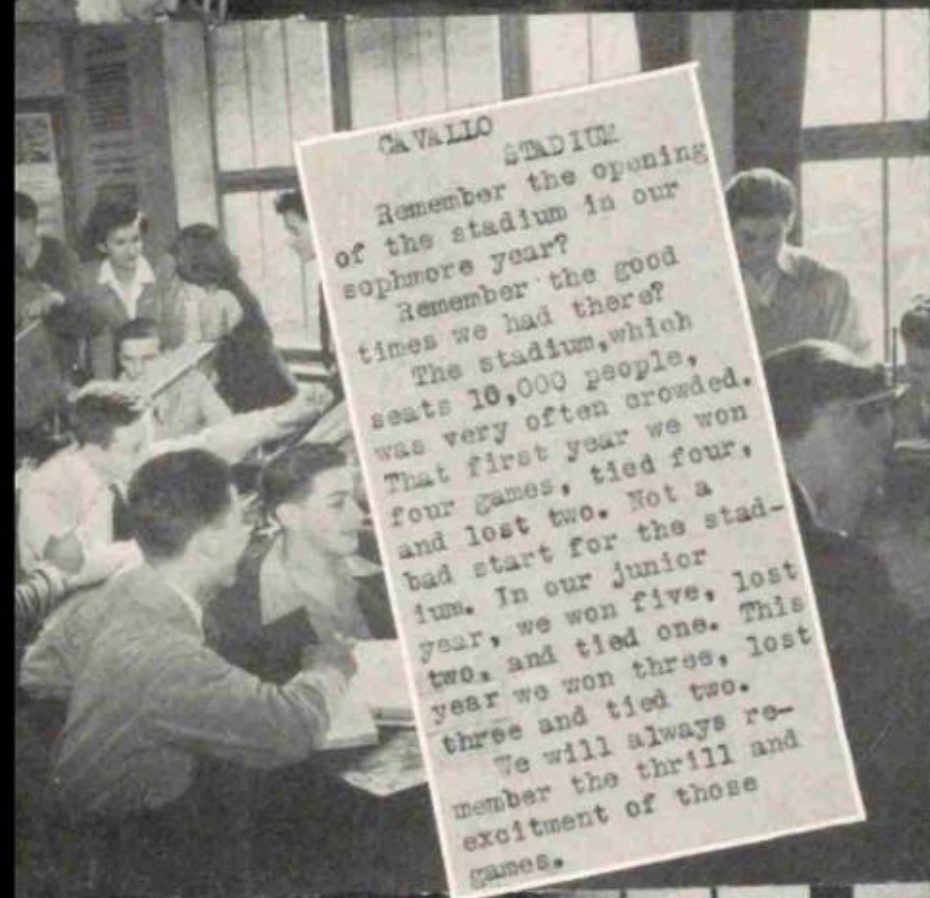

Happy faces, slightly flushed,
Music gentle, voices hushed,
All combined, a pinkish blend,
Soulful sighs, when it did end.

A radiance of pink featured the class of 1943's pride and joy, the Junior Promenade, Friday, May 22, 1942, in the gym.

The sweet music of Duke Collins and the entertainment provided by the Carlson Twins, Josephine Orlando, and Grace Toronto, were enthusiastically received.

Entering the gym, one walked into a world of beauty with golden "V"s decorating the walls. Two thrones for the King Tom Aulito and the Queen Ethel Johnson, met the eye as one gazed at the right wall, bedecked with pink streamers.

Harold Nabel and Bella MacDonald, runners-up, led the promenade which closed the affair.

CAVALLO STADIUM

Remember the opening of the stadium in our sophomore year?

Remember the good times we had there?

The stadium, which seats 10,000 people, was very often crowded. That first year we won four games, tied four, and lost two. Not a bad start for the stadium. In our junior year, we won five, lost two, and tied one. This year we won three, lost three and tied two.

We will always remember the thrill and excitement of those games.

TREASURED TIDBITS

Will we ever forget the change brought about in our last year, especially the boys pre-induction course, and the way they suffered with those long gym periods?.....

Our teachers will also be remembered. Perhaps some memories will not be as fond as others but as a whole they've been grand....

Remember all our student activities, the plays, dances, and games, and the love affairs and crushes that often resulted?...

Not to be forgotten are the wonderful basketball teams we've had or those exciting tournament games.... But of course, we'll remember this and lots more....

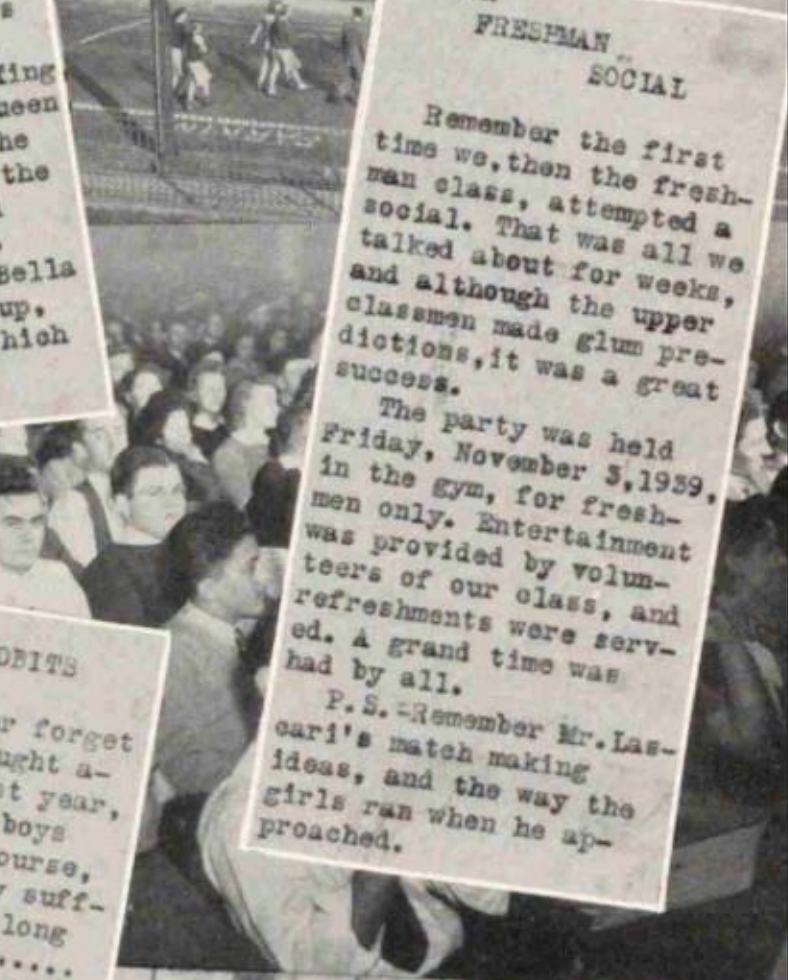

OUR FRESHMAN SOCIAL

Remember the first time we, then the freshman class, attempted a social. That was all we talked about for weeks, and although the upper classmen made glum predictions, it was a great success.

The party was held Friday, November 5, 1939, in the gym, for freshmen only. Entertainment was provided by volunteers of our class, and refreshments were served. A grand time was had by all.

P.S. - Remember Mr. Lascari's match making ideas, and the way the girls ran when he approached.

Build Health Each Day...The Luscious Way!

You know, if you were to check your present eating habits against the Government's Official Food Rules, the chances are you'd discover that you need even more of the energy-building food.

Now, here's one delightful way of doing just that.

Enjoy Reid's rich, smooth Ice Cream. For this luscious treat gives you All of the vitamins, minerals and energy-building elements of cream and wholesome milk products.

There's Vitamin A, to build resistance against infection . . . and Vitamin B Complex for healthy appetites, for steady nerves . . . and minerals such as iron and calcium. And Reid's Ice Cream gives you energy-building Protein as well.

So enjoy Reid's Ice Cream every day . . . for your health's sake and for the sheer enjoyment of a luscious, delightful treat.
